Charming three-room apartment with cellar in Como - 4th and top floor with elevator

For sale is a bright and charming three-room apartment with a cellar, located on the fourth and top floor with an elevator. Located in the Sagnino area of Como, this completely residential neighborhood boasts a convenient and strategic location near the A9 motorway and the Swiss border, close to major roads and essential services.

The apartment, free on two sides, enjoys a double north-south exposure, benefiting from excellent natural light for several hours of the day. The property includes a cellar.

Possibility of a large single garage with direct access to the stairwell in the basement.

The property is located within a well-maintained and well-maintained condominium complex with exposed brick walls and an elevator.
